NEW 2019 JVC Radios Update

Vapormatic is pleased to announce the introduction of a new range of stylish, single DIN Digital Media Receiver (DMR's) from JVC Kenwood.

All new 2019 Bluetooth® models (VLC5783, VLC5789, VLC5791 & VLC5793) now support and display a useful "battery low" message display when using your smartphone during Bluetooth® connection. In addition, for an immersive in-vehicle music experience, VLC5789, VLC 5791 and VLC5793 now include Music Sync Illumination which changes illumination patterns based on the rhythm of the music being played.

Ideal for ATV's or vehicle cabs with space restrictions, the range of short-bodied radio units has also been extended to include a new DAB Bluetooth® model that delivers crystal clear sound, alongside a Bluetooth® and entry-level DMR units both with traditional AM / FM tuners.
